

On to Ireland, England and Scotland!

Monday, January 21, 2013

Dear Soaring Saints:

I have received so many reports on the power of the presence of God during yesterday morning's Celebration Service. This is a season when we must continue to pave the way with worship. Do not grow weary in filling your atmosphere with praise and thanksgiving. Honor the One who is the source of every good and perfect gift. Release a new song to the mighty God who created the heavens and the earth. Worship the Savior who gave His life so we could have abundant life! If you were not able hear the message Keith shared on "Overthrowing Thrones so Worship Can Be Released!" or enter into the worship and ministry, be sure to watch the webcast replay that will be available all week.

On to Ireland, England and Scotland!

Earlier today I departed on my first international trip of the year. Chad Foxworth will be accompanying me. This will be my first time to minister in Ireland. I have prayed for this nation for over 20 years, and look forward to what will be released tomorrow (Tuesday) night in Dublin at "Ireland: Ablaze with Worship in 2013." On Wednesday morning, Kevin and Rosemary Sambrook will be driving us to Northern Ireland to pray in Belfast before we fly on to our next assignment. There has been great tension in Belfast even last week, so pray that the Lord orders the timing and location of our steps, as well as our prayers.

On Wednesday night and Thursday I will be ministering in Dudley, England once again with Trevor and Sharon Baker. I have been with them several years now for "The Secret Place Conference." Pray for the unlocking of revelation that will cause the hidden to come to light and for the Lord's Glory to manifest powerfully across England!

On Friday morning we fly on to Edinburgh, Scotland for "It's Time Scotland!" I have not been to Scotland for several years, and am looking forward to being with the Triumphant Reserve in that nation. For this and every leg of this trip, pray for the Lord's redemptive power to manifest, for His hope to arise, and for His plans and purposes to be made known.

Simplify Your Life in 2013!

Yesterday afternoon I returned from powerful meetings in Tucson, Arizona. While we were there, so many people were discussing The Rewards of Simplicity! This book is divided into two sections. The first part is by Pam and explains how to simplify our lives so we have a clarity of vision. In the second part, I write on posttraumatic stress syndrome, anxiety and distraction. These are the enemies of simplicity of vision. If you don't have this book, I would suggest you order it. Through the end of January the cost is only $9 (regularly $13).
