

Giving with Thanks is Thanksgiving! Praying a Divided Nation will Become One!

Wednesday, November 26, 2014

Dear Rejoicers:

This month has been a wonderful time for us to pray for you. After travelling more this year than ever before, I will be home through the end of the year. We have attempted to honor your giving and represent you well throughout the world. This week, through the end of the year, we will focus more locally. The youth made 150 widows a candle and we blessed each one. They also participated in the local food drives. The people at Linus Blanket project sent this yesterday: “A Special Thanks to Glory of Zion International at Global Spheres Center who sent many tied packages filled with blankets for those in need in the area!” In our Gardens, we have started adding lights for our special Hanukkah Festival of Lights beginning December 17. Please come if you can.

May your life be filled with His bountiful pleasures. May He bless you with all blessings in Heavenly places. May you recognize that there is life and life in abundance for you to experience. Psalm 100 says, “Make a joyful shout to the Lord all ye lands. Enter into His gates with thanksgiving.” I am praying that you would yadah and todah. That means lift your hands, sacrifice to the Lord and adore Him in the midst of your Thanksgiving celebration. I also am praying that you would release a shout of joy. A teru'ah is a shout that's like a blast of trumpets. It's a cry of jubilee, a victory shout. I'm praying you have victory in all that you are trusting God for. Psalm 27:6 says, “And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies all around. Therefore, I will offer sacrifices of joy in His tabernacle. I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to the Lord.” GIVING WITH THANKS IS THANKSGIVING!

A Nation Divided

The eyes of the nation and the world are once again focused on Ferguson, Missouri after a grand jury declined to indict a Ferguson police officer on charges for killing 18-year-old Michael Brown. In June when I was ministering in the St. Louis region and we were worshipping, the Lord had me prophesy: “This will now become the dividing line of a nation. This day and this area becomes a dividing point for a nation.” I know that many in that region (and beyond) have been interceding since the tragedy in August. Kingsley Walker, a leader in that region, wrote us to share a scripture they had been praying leading up to the grand jury decision: “Our city is strong! We are surrounded by the wall of God’s salvation.” (NLT, Isaiah 26:1) Particularly for Ferguson and St. Louis, but for your city as well, this is a powerful declaration to release. Amidst the shouts of confusion that are arising across this land, join us in decreeing that the shout of the Lord will arise and be heard from the heart of our nation.

Do not forget the premise of Thanksgiving in this land. Just shut your eyes and allow your mind to see the Pilgrims and First Nations people as they celebrated the covenant that they had made with God and each other to see this land prosper. For all of you watching Firstfruits this month, we have a button for you to wear signifying the fish that multiplies. My prayer is that all of your fishes and loaves multiply in the days ahead!
