

Prayer Update From Israel (December 12, 2016)

1. “FREEDOM OF ZION!”

“Thus says the LORD of Armies; ‘I am zealous for Zion with great zeal; with great fervor I am zealous for her...I will return to Zion, and dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. Jerusalem shall be called the City of Truth, the Mountain of YHVH of Armies, the Holy Mountain.’” (Zechariah 8:2-3)

“The LORD is righteous; He has cut in two the cords of the wicked. May all who hate Zion be put to shame and turned backward...” (Psalm 129:4-5)

“...And you shall know the Truth, and the Truth shall make you free...so if the Son shall make you free, you shall be free indeed!” (John 8:32, 36)

Last week we reported on a recently-discovered ancient inscription from around 131 AD bearing the name “Judea” (Judah). It had been made shortly before the Romans dispersed the Jews from that region, and attempted to obliterate even the memory of the word “Judah”, by making it part of a region they called Syrian Palestine. But now, some 1800 years later, this same word Judah had come to light! We quoted a number of Scriptures in which it is promised that Judah will not only be restored, but the LORD will “take possession of her as His inheritance in the Holy Land” ...that He will “visit” and “strengthen” the region...in fact, that His “Salvation” will visit Judah first! (Zechariah 2:11-13; 10:3,6; 12:7).

Yesterday morning at the weekly Cabinet meeting of the Knesset in Jerusalem, another ancient artifact “with a message” came to light. Around a month ago during excavation of a recently uncovered road in the capital, a coin was discovered. Minted during the great revolt which would result three years later in Titus destroying Jerusalem, the coin dates from 67 AD and bears the words “FREEDOM OF ZION.”

At the Cabinet Meeting, a minister pointed out how next year will mark 50 years since Israeli paratroopers in June of 1967 broke through into the Old City; and the Temple Mount and Jerusalem, after over 2400 years, was released again into Jewish hands. This was exactly, to the year 1,900 years after this coin was struck. So she found the unveiling of this coin to be significant to the celebration of that “Freeing of Zion.”

We believe this to be true. Yet, for us there is greater and deeper significance in this ancient message regarding Zion coming to light. We encourage you to read again the Scriptures at the heading of this section. The LORD has promised a time when His zeal (or jealousy—the Hebrew for both words is the same) for Zion will burn hot. He is going to return to Zion! — dwell in the midst of Jerusalem! And this passage (Zechariah 8:2-3) obviously equates that with His Mountain, the Holy Mountain! Yet we have entered into an era when the “Holy Mountain” is a point of greatest contention, and when, for the ungodly in the nations, “ZION” has become a dirty word, awakening anger and a threat of violence. In the sophisticated West, we often hear, “We’re not against Jews, we’re against Zionism.” And from at least one nation to our East has come the repeated threat, “The Zionist Entity soon shall cease to exist!”

What is a “Zionist”? It is first of all a member of the ancient Hebrew people who has embraced the promise of YHVH to return him or her to the homeland of their Fathers—a land whose capital is the ancient hill bearing that name, upon which David built his city (II Samuel 5:7; I Kings 8:1). Or one who assists this people in their efforts to return there! We do not have time to do a study of the word in this Update—but a look into any Biblical concordance will give an idea of how important, how significant a word and place it is. Zion appears at least 165 times in the Bible! And not in the O.T. alone. It is a place where the King Yeshua will Himself dwell, and where He will stand with 144,000, having His name and the name of His Father written on their foreheads (Revelation 14:1).

Satan hates Zion; he hates the idea of God’s people returning there, and the idea of their becoming “free” after they get there. Thus (as with “Judah”!), the attack on the integrity of the word itself. Thus his attack on the people whom God has redeemed and called to “come with singing unto Zion!” (Isaiah 51:11). He fears the return of that Redeemer whose deliverance will be on Mount Zion (Isaiah 59:20; Obadiah 17). And he hates the intercessory prayer going up by those who “for Zion’s sake will not keep silent...till her vindication shines out like the dawn, her salvation like a blazing torch!” (Isaiah 62:1).

PLEASE PRAY:

 That God’s Kingdom Come to Zion. As in the Scriptures printed at the beginning of this Update, that the LORD return to Zion, and dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. That Jerusalem be called the *City of Truth, the Mountain of the LORD of Armies; the Holy Mountain.

 That “Zion Awake! —Put on her Strength! That the captive daughter of Zion loose herself from the bonds of her neck” (Isaiah 52:1-2). That she truly come to know the freedom of her Messiah! That she shall know the Truth and the Truth shall make her free!” (John 8:32,36).

* That those who hate Zion be put to shame and turned backward (Psalm 129:4-5). That there be those bound in the deception of anti-Semitism and replacement theology, who will find their cords “cut in two”—and find mercy which leads to repentance and truth.

* That Israel truly find the lost coin of her true Freedom! “And when she has found it [the lost coin], she calls her friends and neighbors together, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found the piece which I lost!’ Likewise, I say to you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.” (Luke 15:8-10)

THIS WEEK’S TORAH PORTION:

From ancient times there has been a weekly portion (Parashah) from the first five books of Moses (The Torah) and an ending (Haftarah) from the Prophets read on the Sabbath in synagogues around the world. This portion is given a Hebrew name drawn from the opening words of the Torah passage. An illustration of this practice appears to have been recorded in Luke 4:16 where Yeshua (Jesus) arrived in the synagogue in Nazareth and was asked to read the portion (Isaiah 61) from the Prophets. We have found that in perusing these weekly readings, not only are we provided opportunity to identify in the context of God’s Word with millions of Jewish people around the world, but very often the Holy Spirit will illumine specific passages pertinent that week in our intercession for the Land and people of Israel. All texts are those of English translations of the Scriptures.

The readings for this week 11-17 December 2016 are called VaYishlach— “And He Sent”:

TORAH: Genesis 32:3—36:43

HAFTARAH: Obadiah 1:1-21

Genesis 32:3. “Then Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother in the land of Seir, the country of Edom.” The word translated “messengers” is the same as that translated “angels” two verses earlier. “Angels” is an English word used to designate heavenly messengers; these are human messengers of Jacob.

Genesis 32:9-10. “O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, the LORD [YHVH]...I am not worthy of the least of all the loving kindnesses and of all the truth which You have shown Your servant; for I crossed over this Jordan with my staff, and now I have become two companies.” As we have often mentioned, “Loving kindness and Truth” (Hebrew: chesed and emet) form a pairing of divine attributes and blessings which appear many times throughout the Hebrew Scriptures. A Modern Hebrew translation of John 1:17 reads (English paraphrase), “For the Torah was given through Moshe, chesed and emet [loving kindness and truth] came through Yeshua the Messiah.” Please pray for discovery, revelation and understanding among the Jewish people of the presence of Yeshua (Jesus) throughout their holy writings (Luke 24:44-45)—a recognition that He was Himself present with the Patriarchs and throughout all of the history of the Hebrews! Nor will He ever leave them nor forsake them (I Corinthians 10:1-4; Hebrews 13:5).

Genesis 32:24, 28. “Then Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until the breaking of day...So he said to him, ‘What is your name?’ He said, ‘Jacob’ And he said, ‘Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel; for you have struggled with God and with [mortal] men, and have prevailed.” There are no upper/lower cases in Hebrew, so “man” and “he” are not capitalized as they appear in many Christian Bibles. This Genesis passage says that Jacob struggled with a “man” (Heb: ish). The Hosea passage printed below calls the being an “angel” (mal’akh)—but remember, mal’akh means “messenger” and need not always refer to a created heavenly being. Since verse 24 can be interpreted to mean that this particular struggle took place with God (Elohim), the Church has traditionally held that Jacob was here struggling with a pre-incarnate form of the God-Man Yeshua (Jesus)—a Messenger from the Father.

“Israel” here means, “He struggles with God”—while “Jacob” is related to struggle with man. The names are used interchangeably throughout the rest of the Hebrew Bible—and Israel and his seed have continued to struggle, both with God and man. Yet when Jacob was allowed to “prevail with God” it was not on behalf of his old desires, but for the favor of sanctification which would change what he could not change himself. In using this incident as an aid to prayer for Israel today, we would encourage you to use the following related passage from Hosea 12:3-6:

“He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and in his strength he struggled with God. Yes, he struggled with the angel and prevailed; He wept, and sought favor from him. He found him in Bethel, and there He spoke to us—that is, the LORD God of armies. YHVH is His memorable name. So you, by the help of your God, return; observe mercy and justice, and wait on your God continually.”

A Hebrew song written by an Israeli brother some years back expresses a prayer—for ourselves personally—and for Israel:

*I will not send you away (let you go) until You bless me
Change my name to Your name
Make my heart like Your heart
Face to Face I want to see You
Face to Face, Adonai
Face to Face with Your Son
Face to Face I want to see You, Lord!*

Genesis 33:18-19. “And Jacob came safely (Hebrew: “whole”) to the city of Shechem...and he pitched his tent before the city. And he bought the parcel of land, where he had pitched his tent, from the children of Hamor, Shechem’s father, for one hundred pieces of money.” As we mentioned a few weeks ago, those places where the Patriarchs and David purchased land tend to be centers of fierce spiritual contention to this day. From the rape of Dinah in the following chapter and the bloody massacre which follows, through the dreadful events of Judges 9, to King Rehoboam's decision there to discipline his subjects "with scorpions" (I Kings 12:14 NASB), to the days of Hosea (Hosea 6:9: "As bands of robbers lie in wait for a man, so the company of priests murder on the way to Shechem; surely they commit lewdness"), the city of Shechem (modern-day Nablus) has long been associated with violence. During the Intifada at the beginning of the last decade, it was a hot-bed for terrorism against Israel. Yet it is also the first place where Abraham is recorded as having stopped after arriving in Canaan (Genesis 12:6). The LORD (YHVH) appeared to him there and promised the land to his seed, "and there he built an altar to the LORD, who had appeared to him." It would be the location where Joseph's bones would be brought and buried (Joshua 24:32); and where Yeshua Himself would have a meeting with a woman at a well Jacob had dug there (John 4). Presently there is a flourishing Palestinian city (Nablus) on the site, with several Jewish settlements nearby. In the early days of the 2nd Intifada, Jews were driven out of the site of Joseph's Tomb, which was desecrated and burned. Almost certainly this city and the settlements would be a big issue in any proposed peace settlement in the future. PLEASE PRAY: That the power of violence be broken over Shechem/Nablus—and its inhabitants brought into the Kingdom of the Prince of Peace. Pray that the altars of Abraham and Jacob to the LORD be restored there—and that the wells of living water that Yeshua spoke of there would spring up to Arab and Jew alike. Psalm 60:6 and 108:7 prophesy "God has spoken in His holiness; 'I will exult, I will portion out Shechem . . .'"

Genesis 33:20. "Then he erected an altar there and called it El Elohei Yisrael." We have found many names of God revealed thus far in Canaan—El Elyon (God Most High), El Shaddai (God Almighty), El Roi (The God who Sees), Elohei-Avraham (the Abraham-God). But this name...Elohei-Yisrael, the "Israel-God" is the one which will be used most hereafter. God Himself has chosen sovereignly to identify His name with Israel (Jacob) and his descendants. Muslims identify their deity with Ishmael (it was Ishmael whom Allah asked Abraham to sacrifice), thus cutting themselves off from the Covenant which the Most High God made to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob (Israel). He is the LORD (YHVH) God of Israel, and it is to Him that all of us, whatever our lineage must come. PLEASE PRAY: grace for revelation and humility among both Jews and Muslims in Israel to bow to the one true God, who has Himself chosen to be identified with Israel (Jacob) and his seed.

Hilltop near the site of ancient Bethel.

Genesis 35:1-2, 5. “Then God said to Jacob, ‘Arise, go up to Bethel and dwell there; and make an altar there to God, who appeared to you when you fled from the face of Esau your brother. And Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, ‘Put away the foreign gods that are among you, purify yourselves, and change your garments...And they journeyed, and the terror of God was upon the cities that were all around them, and they did not pursue the sons of Jacob.’”

Jacob came “in wholeness”—a new man with a new name, to Shechem (see Gen. 13:18-19 above) ...but his “house” was not whole. There were hidden gods smuggled from Aram (perhaps brought originally by Abram’s father from Ur?), and obviously various other gods used as jewelry. The presence of these idols had caused a great breach in the protection of the family, occasioning violation (Dina), cruel and senseless violence (Shimon and Levi) and perhaps even eventually resulting in death (Rachel). For the “Family” of Israel to be made “whole”—for the family’s armor to be made sound, all of this had to be dealt with.

Only the God YHVH (Yehovah) had been a shield for Abraham in this spiritually dark and violent land (Genesis 15:1-2)—and only the same God would be protection for Israel and his seed. The same holds true today. Yet it is interesting that the personal name YHVH is not used in this passage (Genesis 35:1-15), rather the names El and Elohim (“God”), and El Shaddai (Gen. 35:11— “God-Almighty who nourishes all life”). HE (as opposed to all the gods in Canaan and those which some of Abram’s entourage had brought from Aram) was the only true God. As the “Almighty” (Shaddai), He had made covenant with their father Abraham (Gen. 17:1-2). It was as El Shaddai that Jacob had been blessed by his father Isaac when he departed for Aram (Genesis 28:3). Here it was in that name that He would release fruitfulness over Jacob and his family now that they were in the Land. It was as El Shaddai—God Almighty—that God would continue to be known until the time of Moses (Exodus 6:3).

PLEASE PRAY: For the conviction of the Holy Spirit in Israel to turn from idols and turn to the Living God for cleansing and clothing in righteousness. Pray especially for holiness in leadership in the Body of Messiah here. Clothed in that, the Terror of God will cause darkness to flee as they advance through the Land!

Genesis 35:16 (ESV). “Then they journeyed from Bethel. When they were still some distance from Ephrath, Rachel went into labor...so Rachel died, and she was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is Bethlehem), and Jacob set up a pillar over her tomb.”

The Hebrew, which plainly has Rachel’s tomb “some distance from” Bethlehem, has been explained away by religious Jews who insist that a building adjacent to the edge of the town is her resting place. That place has become a place of pilgrimage, and much superstitious and occult tradition amongst ultra-Orthodox Jews. I Samuel 10:2 strongly implies that in Samuel’s day Rachel’s tomb was assumed to be “in the territory of Benjamin” a number of miles to the north, but “on the way [from Bethel] to Ephrath (that is Bethlehem).

ESAU, EDOM, AMALEK AND THE SPIRIT OF ISLAM

Genesis 36:12. “Now Timna was the concubine of Eliphaz, Esau’s son, and she bore Amalek to Eliphaz. These were the sons of Adah, Esau’s wife.” Chapter 36 is dedicated to the genealogy of Esau, “father of the Edomites” (vs 9). Central in that race would be the descendants of Amalek (36:12, 16). As has been mentioned, Amalek in Scripture typifies a Covenant-hating spirit which is the root of anti-Semitism. It would be “Amalek” who would first attack Israel after she came forth out of the Red Sea (Exodus 17:8), and against whom God would swear continual war until he was blotted out from under heaven (17:14); it would be Amalek who would pick off stragglers in Israel’s rear when they were tired and weary (Deuteronomy 25:17-18). When Saul refused to follow God’s commandment and spared the Amalekite Agag (I Samuel 15:9), he would be severely rebuked by Samuel, lose his Kingship, and eventually according to one report, be killed by an Amalekite (II Samuel I:8, 13). And in the book of Esther, we see that the architect of a proposed Holocaust of the Jews in the Persian kingdom was Haman, the Agagite, a descendant of Amalek. Throughout Jewish history since, Amalek has been seen as a spirit which continues to come against God’s covenant people, Israel... a spirit with which both Israel and YHVH, the God of Israel are at war until it is destroyed (Exodus 17:8-15; Deuteronomy 25:17-19).

The Haftarah reading for this week is the Book of Obadiah... a grim prophecy of judgment on Edom, “for violence against your brother Jacob.” (Ezekiel 35:5 attributes this violence to “an ancient hatred” of the children of Israel). God is not willing that any should perish. But He stands forever against that which opposes his covenant with Jacob/Israel—because that Covenant is ultimately a covenant of life for all Humankind. He cannot grant quarter to death, because he is Elohim Haim—the God of Life! Because Islam claims that its god chose Ishmael (thereby choosing for itself a different covenant than the Life-Covenant which God gave through Isaac), the spirit behind that religion proves itself a Covenant-hating spirit, bringing all in its bondage under the judgment of the God of Life. God forever hates the power behind Esau/Edom/Amalek (Malachi 1:3; Obadiah 1:2,18; Ezekiel 35; Deuteronomy 25:19; Exodus 17:14-16) ... but He loves those captured within that system; to those who will come out of that darkness, He offers life, hope and a future!
