

DAY 10: GOD IS ABLE!

I keep hearing “GOD IS ABLE!” I believe this is a word for each of us as we enter this new season. The Holy Spirit seems to be beckoning me to pray for Gods’ people to declare and embrace GOD’S ABILITY to make each one of us able to overcome. Faith should be growing, and steadfast. Faith should be abiding, and continuing. Faith should be creating advancement in God’s Kingdom. I see that we have grown anxious in the cares of this world. We have fallen into fear of failure, fear of harm, fear of abandonment, and fear of the future. We have forgotten God’s ability to bless. As I prayed the phrase, “God is able,” faith rose in me for us. I saw that our seeking must progress from little faith to overcoming power. GOD IS ABLE TO DRESS YOU, GIVE YOU WEAPONS, AND SEND YOU INTO THE WAR VICTORIOUSLY! Sometimes we do not quite have our armor in position. Sometimes we are using last season’s war methods. Sometimes we are do not know how to use our weapons. Sometimes we forget we are in war. He can make you able to bear buckler and sword for victory. Meditate on I Chron. 5:18.

I hear the Lord saying: “My people must always be going from faith to faith. As they enter this new season, I see that they are struggling in their going. They have faith, but their faith is weak. Their expectations have been bruised. Their hope in Me performing what I have spoken has become like a faded dream. They are living in the present, with dread for the future. They no longer anticipate favorable outcomes in their lives. Therefore, My favor is slowing lifting from them. They are not rising above but being sidetracked by circumstances. These circumstances are keeping them from entering into MY creative power. I AM GOD and not man! I AM ABLE TO release new vigor and strength that will catapult them into their next season of SEEING. I AM ABLE. LEAN NOT ON YOUR OWN ABILITIES, FOR I CAN ENABLE YOU!”

GOD IS ABLE TO MAKE YOU ENDURE UNTIL YOU GET TO YOUR “THERE!” One meaning of the word endure is ‘to repair a broken foot so you can step forward, continue on your journey, and possess the promise God has for you.’ I declare anything that has caused your feet and spiritual walk to have broken peace, will now be mended and you will continue on your journey to prophetic fulfillment. Read Gen. 33:14. Some of you are on the journey called “DIVINE RETURN TO PROMISE AND DESTINY!”
