

Getting Reordered: A Perpetual Light That Does Not Go Out and Prevents Drought! Haggai!

December 2, 2010

Dear Carriers of the Lord:

SOMETHING NEW FOR YOU TO HEAR! I believe we need to HEAR the Word of the Lord! As a staff and Body, we have been studying Haggai. You can read about this below. In the process of doing this, I realized there were wonderful messages daily coming from people, young and old, here at Glory of Zion. Therefore, we are doing something new for you! We are video taping “short” 15-20 minute daily messages for you to hear. This will keep you encouraged and moving forward. I realize that many times we go from Sunday to Sunday in hearing a message from the Lord. However, all during the week we are confronted by many trials and need to “hear a word”. Some people can read a daily devotion, but others need to hear a daily devotion!

Go to our home page at www.gloryofzion.org and click on Hearing God’s Message from Glory! This is exciting!

Hanukkah Began Last Night!

Martin and Norma Sarvis, our friends and connection in Israel, sent the following at this time of celebration:

The eight-day Jewish celebration of Hanukkah (it is also called the Festival of Lights) remembers the dedication of the Temple in Jerusalem after it had been recovered by the Jewish forces of Yehuda Maccabee in 164 BC. The Syrian king Antiochus IV Epiphanes (a fore-runner of the Anti-Christ, foretold in Daniel 11:21), seeking to coerce Jews into abandoning their religion and culture for that of Greece, had issued edicts forbidding circumcision, observance of Jewish Sabbaths and feast-days. He had defiled the Holy Temple by offering a sow on the altar and raising up in the Sanctuary a statue to Zeus.

As depicted in the First Book of Maccabees (an account of Jewish history found in the Apocrypha), a revolt was launched by the priest Mattathias and later led by his son Yehuda (Judas) Maccabee. It led to the defeat of the Syrian forces, and the defiled Temple was cleansed and re-dedicated. Another account relates how during this cleansing there was only enough sanctified oil left to burn in the menorah for one night—yet a miracle occurred and it continued burning for eight days. The victorious warrior Yehuda ordained “that the days of the dedication of the altar should be kept in their season from year to year by the space of eight days, from the five and twentieth day of the month of Kislev, with mirth and gladness” (I Maccabees 4:59). Today, part of the celebration includes the use of a special eight-branched menorah upon which a new oil lamp or candle is lit each evening. Each light is ignited from the flame of a separate “Branch” called shamash—“servant.”

Remarkably, the Haftarah reading for this Saturday within Hanukkah, besides containing, as might be expected, a menorah, also includes the following words, “Behold, I am bringing forth

My Servant the BRANCH.” Although a different word for servant is used here, there is no doubt that it refers to the Servant-Messiah, sent by the Father—the Light Inextinguishable, who illumines all coming into the world (John 1:9).

Hanukkah—the Feast of Dedication—the Festival of Lights—is a season for:

*Allowing the Holy Light of the Spirit to shine within ourselves, revealing any idolatry or uncleanness which may have defiled our bodies (which are the Temple of the Holy Spirit) and removing it.

*For surrendering ourselves anew to the infilling of the Holy Spirit from an inexhaustible supply.

*For letting our “lights” shine brightly in the darkness—reaching out and joining with those of other believers. A popular Israeli Hebrew Children’s song for Hanukkah is called BANU HOSHEKH L’GARESH (“We have come to drive out darkness”):

We have come to drive out darkness, in our hands light and fire:
Each of us is a small light, but together we are a strong, steady light.
Flee Darkness in the Blackness—Flee before the Light!

HOW YOU SPEAK IS HOW YOU RECEIVE! Angels will Now be Sent to Guard your Mouth! A Prophecy from Chuck Pierce, Barbara Wentroble and Keith Pierce

“I have blessings that, like the sea, can cover you. Because these blessings can cover you, enter in! For if you will seat yourself with Me and have a cup of tea and talk with Me, then you will taste and you will see. Taste and see, for blessings greater than the sea can overtake you.

“We are entering a season when you need to watch your mouth and project your voice. I will watch the way you use your mouth this season. I will watch how you celebrate. I will send an angel to guard your mouth.

“I will watch how you look for your provision. Will you look for provision by faith? Will you look for provision out of a heart of worship? Or will you strive to get what you need? I will watch how you speak for your provision to come. I am changing the administration of your provision. So this week be not distraught, but this week speak and watch the honey and the water come forth.

“This is not a time to Strike with anger. I AM saying: ‘Speak!’ I am not saying, ‘Strike.’ Beware, beware to speak and not to strike! In your striking there will be a drying. But in your speaking there will be a watering. Arise and put your hand over your mouth and let Me say, ‘I am One who will speak clearly to see what needs to be broken; come forth in My name.’

“Be not angry, but rejoice, for your emotions must be displayed properly. Allow your emotions to rise up in the midst of your circumstances and speak to the rock and tell that mountain you’re coming through!

“I’m raising up a Caleb generation in this hour. Even Caleb was one who said, ‘Give me my mountain!’ He spoke and commanded the mountain to come into his possession. I am raising a

Caleb generation who will speak, who will take that which I said they could have -- even a generation that murmured and complained and never came into the fulfillment of the promise of the Lord in the last season -- who will say, 'NOW!' In this hour I will raise up a Caleb generation, a people who will possess that which I say they can have. Even as Caleb, speak and declare that you have your mountain, your possession. This generation must arise and speak the provision of the Lord."

Consider Your Ways!

This past Sunday the Lord spoke clearly to us from Haggai. Haggai was a restoration prophet. He called the people to complete what they had begun! Haggai means "festal" or "to be festive." In this season, Haggai is the perfect book to read to understand timing, restoration, and celebration. Our assignment is to read Haggai for seven days and see the insights that the Spirit is revealing. Follow me as I daily communicate some of these insights on FaceBook. I will compile an overall document of insights for next week. Start reading! Write us with your insights and how you are completing things that have laid desolate, awaiting completion.

This is a month to celebrate His coming! But I have a key word for you: "He is still here through the power of Holy Spirit that remains in the earth to communicate and align us with the Son who is seated at Father's right hand in Heaven!"

As an example of what is being posted on FaceBook, here are Linda Heidler's insights on the book of Haggai:

The people had lost their priority to make God central and develop a place for His presence to dwell. In Haggai 1:5, the prophet spoke: "Consider your ways and set your mind on what has come to you!" The word "CONSIDER" is formed from three words. Consider means to appoint, call, commit, set or purpose. Consider is the word for heart. Heart is both the actual organ and the innermost part of man. The other word for consider means "over, above or beyond".

When you look at this phrase you see that "Consider Your Ways" means to call your heart above your ways – come to a higher level of understanding and discernment about what you are doing, how you are living, and the choices you are making. Perhaps you are looking at things from a low circumstantial level and need to come to a higher level of understanding. Your perspective could be too small and limited. This might be causing you to not see the full picture of what is going on in your life. Your priorities may have been shifted from the perfect purpose that God "began you with."

Your lack can blind you. A wrong perspective can cause you to not see the real source of your lack. The issue is not the lack of food or clothes or resource, but that your heart is set on too low of a level of earthly versus heavenly purpose, and the things of earth rather than the things of God. Bring your heart up to a higher place! Set your heart on God and His plans for you.

Remember, this is our month to catch up! If we will seek Him daily, we will catch up in our celebration. In December, when we might normally gather for Corporate Prayer on Tuesday mornings or at noon on Wednesdays, we will instead focus on reading the word, celebrating and answering questions the Lord may give us. To assist you in doing this, we will be making short videos available based on the revelation we are hearing as a staff and ministry. If you regularly set aside Tuesday morning or Wednesday noon to join us, just shift your plans and watch a webcast taping and set your heart to celebrate.

Watch the short message from Linus Vaughn available on our website where he shares his insights on the book of Haggai. We want to see each of you “caught up” in your thanksgiving and positioned to celebrate! Just go to www.gloryofzion.org and select Hearing God’s Message from Glory! This is in the center of the page.

Join us Saturday Night for our Firstfruits Celebration for Tevet!

Make plans to join us at 7:00 PM on Saturday night for our Rosh Chodesh Celebration for the Hebraic month of Tevet. *This will be a time when we celebrate Hanukkah and our “oil” not running out! Tevet is the month that marks the end of the Hanukkah, a time for our faith to be stirred. Hanukkah is the Hebrew word for “dedication,” so we will be declaring that the LIGHT of the Lord will help us see clearly. Tevet is also the month of AYIN. In this 10 year ayin season, we want to pay particular attention to our vision in the month associated with vision and looking again. There is no registration needed to join us, in person or by webcast. If you are not able to join us, we will offer a webcast replay through next Saturday night (December 11). This will be a free replay for everyone who is registered in Member Services. So if you have not already registered your contact information in Member Services, please take a minute to do so.

Blessings,

Redeeming the Time by Chuck D. Pierce

Also available in Spanish ($12) and Portuguese ($12)

This book helps you answer the difficult question of how to get back in sync with God when you realize you missed a window of opportunity. This is an amazing principle to understand. When one window closes, the Lord has a divine plan to reposition another time and another place for you to enter His blessings. How many times do we wish we could go back in time to undo or redo something? Although the Lord doesn't take us back in time, He has the ability to bring our past "into" our future so that we have a second opportunity to choose and get back in His perfect timing. Redeeming the Time will help you recognize God's timing in your life and determine if you are in step or out of step with God's plans and purposes. This book will also help you align yourself with God's perfect timing system, and reap rewards of a life spent in step with our Father. There is also a chapter that will help you understand the Triumphant Reserve that is emerging from state to state. $12 (regularly $15)

Interpreting the Times by Chuck D. Pierce

Also available in Spanish ($8) and Portuguese ($12)

This book carries the message of what I represent in the Body of Christ: the Issachar Anointing. Interpreting the Times will give you an idea of what it takes to make it through narrow transitions. If ever we needed to understand GOD in our time and space, it is NOW! This book will move you to understand the "process of time" that may presently be controlling you, into seeing your way into a place of future victory! ($12)

OR BOTH for only $20!!!
