

Christmas in Nazareth from Daniel and Amber Pierce

December 27, 2011

Dear Friends of Israel:

Daniel, Amber and Lily have completed their first Christmas in Israel. How amazing to see they were led to experience this season in Nazareth and enter into this season with other believers there. I love how Eddie James was in Nazareth, and will be with us on Saturday night with his 40 member team for Crossing Over into the New Day. This will be an open concert that we want to see many young people attend.

Daniel and Amber are also moving today from Jaffa to Omer, which is close to Beersheba. Please pray for their safety and all the details in relocating.

Blessings,
Chuck D. Pierce

As we write this small update from the Land where the Lord was born, you would never know that Christmas is here. We had a nice quiet day at home and resisted appointments, as today is just a normal work day in Israel. Six nights ago we celebrated the first day of Hanukkah with Avi and Chaya Mizrahi. They had us over for the first candle lighting. That was a blessing and a great way to start the celebration. Kids receive a gift for eight days straight during Hanukkah and they gave Lily a sweet stuffed lion for her first Hanukkah present.

Two days later we felt that we should go to Nazareth to celebrate this season. We realized, upon driving in, that Nazareth is where Christmas is! We saw several Christmas trees and even heard Christmas music. Eddie James was doing a night of worship there. (He will also be with you at the Global Spheres Center on Saturday night for a free gathering on New Year's Eve.) It was an amazing time! To be in worship in Nazareth during the Christmas season was a blessing. To top it all off, we saw many go to the altar wanting to receive salvation and prayer. It was very encouraging to see the response of young people there.

Our new friend, an Arab Believer who hosted the event, also took us to her house of prayer. This is a special place that overlooks the entire city on Nazareth. She told us that the atmosphere of the city had changed greatly over the past few years because of their obedience in the night watches. We pray that the freedom that was conceived in that city would be contagious throughout the land of Israel.

We have spent much of our Christmas day packing! On Tuesday we are moving to Omer, which is close to Beersheba. This is the town that Abraham is from. If you read through Genesis, you will see this town mentioned a few times. This is also in range of rockets from Gaza. We will send a prayer focus on these issues soon. This is a very family friendly town which will also still be convenient for us to get to Tel Aviv and Jerusalem.

We will update you all shortly about our move.

Merry Christmas, Happy Hanukkah and peace to His people on earth!

Daniel, Amber and Lily Pierce
