

A Time to Be Mixed!
A Time to Be Poured Out!
A Time to Hear the Promise!
A Time to Celebrate the Season!

Dear Promise Hearers:

Each year the first thing we do is send our widows a gift. We have about 140 widows that I make sure we, here at the ministry, watch over. As I was signing the letter and including a gift, I want you to know that you are a part of that gift. I was also thinking about each one of you and your giving to this ministry. Today we were preparing a compost for the garden. We sent four men with a trailer to shovel and clean out a cattle arena. We are finishing the Restored Glory room to have it ready for Starting the Year Off With Worship. We have participated in Christmas activities in the cities of Denton, Corinth and Lewisville. You are just such a part of touching the community with the fragrance of the Lord. We had 300 ladies here at the Global Spheres Center this past weekend celebrating the birth of the Lord Jesus Christ and fellowshiping with each other. There are lots of activities during this time of year!

A Time to Hear the Promise!

As I said on Sunday, I want to send out some wonderful songs, old and new, that can break old cycles. The first one is “The Promise” by Aaron and Tiffany Smith. This song represents this season as well as any song I’ve heard. One line of this song is almost haunting when you listen to it: “Every promise . . . the greatest, the smallest . . . is risked if we don’t protect it.” I encourage you to take the time to listen to this song by clicking HERE. You can also purchase the entire CD from our Webstore further below.

What Can I Do For You?

I so appreciated Robert’s continued message on Sunday morning on “What Can I Do for You? (Part 2) How to Build a Foundation for Your Future!” The Lord has really caused us to pause and not only answer His question of what we have and what He can do for us, but how our responses open up our future. In the hustle and bustle of this season, be sure to take time to listen for the Lord’s questions and be ready to give an answer. You can watch the webcast replay from Sunday through this evening.

A Time to be Mixed and A Time to be Poured Out!

During worship on Sunday morning, the Spirit of the Lord began to say, “I’m mixing some things that have not been mixed properly for you. I’m putting some things in your bowl and causing them to be mixed correctly this season. For the recipe for your life had ingredients removed and left out in the last season. I am leaving and finding some new ingredients to make you spicier and to make you more tasteful in days ahead. So allow Me to mix, allow Me to mix, allow Me to mix what has not been mixed in your life in the past season. For if you will, you will cause many to taste, to taste, to taste and see that I am good.”

“For just like My prophet pointed at the heavens and the heavens would close, you are in the season where you will point and the heavens will completely render unto your authority. In the old seasons the heavens (were) crushed by the power of the demonic structure and (would) not open. But in this season you will have such authority that no demonic structure will close the windows that I have intended for you to keep open. Dwell under the open heavens and windows that your hand will point and open.

“Know that I am releasing angels to uncover things that have been covered up ... ingredients in your life that you have not found in the past season. They will be placed in your path this season. And what was shut down will be opened up, and what was opened up that needed closing, will be closed. Many will taste and see that you are good, and by tasting of you they will taste the power of My Spirit and they will know that I, the Lord, am a Lord filled with goodness.

“You see a hole but I see a gate! Every valley of Achor, every valley of trouble, I am turning into a door of hope, and (to) what you saw as a pit that you would never get out of, redemption has come. And that’s how your alabaster box breaks open - when you thought you would never get out of that pit. But I am the Redeemer and every door of trouble will become a door of hope.

“Pour out, pour out, pour out! I will mix you up in a new way and I will pour you out, pour you out, pour you out!”
