

The Reality of Israel Today: Report from Worship in Jerusalem!

Thursday, February 18, 2016

Dear Friends of Israel:

Thank you so much for praying for last week's Worship Gathering in Jerusalem. As Daniel and Amber share below, there was a great freedom in worship, and many found a new dimension of liberty and wholeness. Next week we plan to have the video available for webcast replay, so watch for that announcement and continue to cry out for the glory of the Lord to arise and shine in all the nations of the earth.

Blessings,

Thank you to all who prayed for the Worship Gathering that we hosted on February 11th. God is moving in Israel and pouring out His glory. So much freedom is being released in these gatherings. Some received salvation and many are being encouraged. We were blessed to have ex-Muslims join us who had just received the Lord. The webcast replay will be available on the Glory of Zion website within the next few days, so that you all can join in with the worship from Jerusalem. The focus on the event was Isaiah 60: Arise and Shine! We also want to say thank you to all of you who give financially to make these gatherings possible! We are now preparing for the next gathering in Jerusalem on March 17th, for any of you who would like to join us for that. Trevor Baker will be ministering.

Please accelerate your prayers for the peace of Jerusalem. There have been many outbreaks of terror over the past week in our city - even a stabbing close to our home. Over the past few days I have felt a very big shift in my spirit over the change of atmosphere in this city. So much has happened and we know that many of you follow jpost.com or ynet.com so that you can keep up with the news in Israel.

Blessings and Shalom,

Daniel and Amber Pierce
