

No Service Tonight!
But Center for Advancement on “How to See Your Provision” will Continue
...Webcast will be Available!

Friday, February 4, 2011

Dear Seeking Saints:

A fresh layer of snow has coated the region here. Although it is beautiful, it has also made getting around more treacherous. Here in North Texas we do not have “practice” driving on snow and ice like other parts of our nation! The entrance to our complex is particularly challenging, and we do not want put any of you at risk in trying to drive here later today. Consequently, WE WILL NOT PLAN TO GATHER TONIGHT AT 7:00 PM for our Friday Night Celebration, See Your Provision.

CENTER FOR ADVANCEMENT WILL BE HELD ON SATURDAY!!!! Join with us onsite at 9:00 AM or by Webcast!

For those of you who planned to join us onsite for the Center for Advancement Class tomorrow (Saturday), we are still planning to offer that course. Our instructors are in town, so we will be able to advance with the class on “Releasing the Seer Gift and Multiplying in Your Field!” Come at your own risk to our complex or join us by webcast from the safety of your home. If you have already registered to physically attend tomorrow’s Center for Advancement course, Rose Flieger will be emailing you today with the details for how you will BE ABLE TO SIGN ON ALL MONTH! Tomorrow afternoon the temperatures should rise above freezing, so that could melt much of the ice!

WE WILL ALSO CELEBRATE FIRSTFRUITS FOR ADAR on Saturday night at 7:00 PM!!!
You are invited to join us onsite or by webcast. So if you are in the region and would prefer to stay home, you can always join us for the free webcast.

We will plan to send out an email early tomorrow morning with an update on where things stand, as well as post any update on our website and Facebook. But for now, here are our plans for the weekend:

Friday Night Celebration ... CANCELLED

Saturday’s Center for Advancement Course on Releasing the Seer Gift and Multiplying in Your Field! ...ONSITE as well as by WEBCAST (your choice)

Saturday Night Firstfruits Gathering ... ONSITE as well as by WEBCAST

Sunday Morning Corporate Services ... ONSITE as well as by WEBCAST

If you have yet to register for our Center for Advancement course which will bring forth an understanding of how the LORD allows us to see and hear in ways that create multiplication, you will want to sign up! The cost is $20 per person, and you can register by going to our website. Remember, this one day course will be available as a webcast replay through the end of the month – so you can watch for the next several weeks as well.

If you are snowed in, this is a good weekend to sign on and be fed spiritually! We look forward to seeing you online, or here on Saturday and Sunday!

Blessings,

Chuck D. Pierce
