

The Gift of Replay: Be Sure to Celebrate Passover
- Leap Forward!
21 Days to Overcome and Prosper!
"Uncovering the Treasures Hidden in Darkness!"

Tuesday, April 2, 2013

Dear Leaping Forward Friends:

Pesach, the Hebrew word for Passover, means to leap forward or be halted. I am declaring that we all start leaping forward and don't stop until we are leaping and skipping on the mountains of new vision.

I am so grateful for all of you who joined us for our Passover Celebration. When we celebrate the life, death and resurrection of Jesus and the power of His blood, there is an agreement between Heaven and Earth that releases His Glory. The Lord's presence was powerfully manifested this past weekend, and we experienced a new dimension of His Kingdom rule and reign.

21 Days of Contending for the Release of the Wind of Heaven!

On the opening night of our Passover Celebration, the Spirit of the Lord began to stir powerfully to oppose the adversity that has been contending with us. I heard the Lord begin to say, “I will blow a new wind of My Spirit in these next three weeks, and right now that wind is stirring in Heaven. Contend with Me for these next three weeks, and what has been adverse (sent by the Adversary), and what has been adverse that you’ve been in trial over, this wind from Heaven that you bring down will open your way out of that situation!”

This is a key time to contend for the release of the Lord’s restorative power. We are in the 50 days between Passover and Pentecost (when God poured out His Spirit with signs and wonders following). Similar to Jesus’ disciples learning to pray and come into a new measure of unity before the Holy Spirit was released to the Church, I believe we are being called to pray in a new way for a fresh release of Heaven on Earth. Begin today by crying out for signs of restoration to begin manifesting in new ways. Decree that the Spirit of God will be sought after in your nation, and that the God of Restoration will cause His people to be heard in a new way.

Kingdom Force Institute Teaching Continues on Wednesdays!
