

Worship and Declaration at Noon Today! Counting the Omer Tonight at 6 PM! Preparing for Pentecost Release!

Wednesday, May 20, 2015

Dear Breakthrough Believers:

This is an amazing time! Today at noon, we will be gathering in the Prayer Tower for a special time of worship and prophetic release. In this Pentecost week, we want to continue establishing an atmosphere where the Lord can manifest His plans and purposes for this kairos season. Join us in releasing your SOUND and declaring the shout of a King is among us!

Preparing for Pentecost!

We are finalizing preparations to host many of you for our Pentecost Celebration beginning tomorrow night. If you are not able to join us here at the Global Spheres Center, then I hope you will find your times to connect by webcast. We have been counting the omer for nearly 50 days now, and these watches are developing an expectation for Pentecost release. Today's watch at 6 PM will be another opportunity for breakthrough and advance as we focus on Virginia, Cambodia, Laos, Vietnam and Israel.

Amber and Daniel Pierce, who are ministering this Saturday night, were just in my office talking about their session. Amber happened to share several pictures from large wall murals in their neighborhood in Jerusalem. They are just awesome!

New Apostolic Geese Video!

So many of you enjoyed the last video of the geese in the Gardens here. We now have an update that you will want to watch. Click HERE to watch this update on the Beulah Acres Blog along with an article on what we can learn from geese.

From the Israel Prayer Garden to the Gentile Field!

Here are some great pictures we just took this morning in the Gardens. This is our time to pass through our gates of opportunity and entrance to the season ahead.

Server Upgrade

Thank you for praying for our gloryofzion.org server upgrade. Early this morning we resolved some of the last changes with our webstore, and that is now fully up and running again. So if you encountered problems with online purchases the last few days, you should now be able to purchase without difficulty. We are grateful for the team that the Lord has given us to complete this upgrade, and that it could be completed in this key 50 day season.

Prayer Changes Lives!

I know that many of you joining Sunday morning's webcast prayed for Jonathan Price from New Jersey who was severely beaten with trauma to the brain and bleeding. We stopped to pray for him during the service. Although the doctors told the family he should have died, he is out of intensive care and hoping to be released today. His parents, John and Sheryl, wanted us to know that at the time we prayed corporately, the doctors found the bleeding to stop! Let's continue to rejoice over this healing, and declare what the enemy intended for harm will be turned for good. I declare that same proclamation over each of you!

Blessings,

Chuck D. Pierce
