

*Join us SUNDAY Morning for our Firstfruits
Celebration for the Hebraic Month of Tammuz!*

Friday, June 27, 2014

Dear Celebrating Saints:

I am really looking forward to this Sunday morning. Rather than Celebrate Firstfruits on Saturday night, I believe the Lord has asked us to celebrate the Rosh Chodesh blessing for Tammuz on Sunday morning, during our 9 AM service. This should allow many to join us who might not otherwise be able to join us on a Saturday night. This will be a dynamic time of worship and presenting our gifts to the Lord at the beginning of a new Hebraic month. Robert Heidler will be teaching on Tammuz: The Month of the Tribe of Reuben ... Avoiding the Snare of the Golden Calf!

Below are two pictures of displays in the Tabernacle that should help many of you understand this season and how we are praying for you. The first picture represents how we are crying out to the Lord for each one of you ... that the double portion will be released! The second display highlights how His eye is on the harvest!

May this be a month where your eyes are opened to the harvest!

Blessings,

Chuck D. Pierce
