Miss Lindy Show: Prepare for Sivan!

Monday, June 6, 2011

Dear Expectant Pray-ers:

The Feast of Pentecost begins tomorrow (Tuesday) night at sundown. We do not want to enter our Pentecost Celebration without first spending time in prayer. Consequently, we will have a Prayer Watch in the Glory of Zion sanctuary tomorrow (Tuesday) evening beginning at 6:00 PM and continuing until 6:00 AM on Wednesday morning. We will have a variety of leaders throughout the night to connect with the Spirit of the Lord and His rushing mighty wind.

Please note we will NOT have our regular Tuesday Morning Prayer at 6:00 AM. Instead, our prayer focus will be to begin on Tuesday evening and continue through Wednesday morning. Each of you is encouraged to join us for a portion of this prayer watch. We will be offering a live webcast so you do not need to be onsite to participate ... but you do need to join us between the hours of 6 PM and 6 AM from Tuesday night – Wednesday morning.

Here is what Anne Tate shares:

Shavout or Pentecost marks the culmination of the seven weeks of growth that made the Revelation possible. The Disciples and those gathered in the Upper Room spent the seven weeks encountering the Lord in a form which they did not recognize. They watched Him ascend. They interacted with angels. They spent nights praying and searching the Scriptures. This year we have counted the Omer and spent the past seven weeks watching as the Disciples did, asking how to move forward. We have had many words concerning increased angelic activity and greater insight in how to work with them. It takes this seven weeks of growth to make the revelation possible for us each year and to connect to our forward movement. Therefore, we look forward to praying on Tuesday evening from 6 PM to Wednesday morning at 6 AM. I hope many of you will take time to join us.
