

After the Thunder Dance on Sunday with No Rain in Sight!
Don't Murmur and Complain - Keep Dancing this Week!

Dear Persevering Saints:

After being in Brazil, China, and Canada, I was so very glad to be home. I want to thank you beyond what words can express for praying for us. All three of these nations are creating new models for the apostolic and prophetic movement as we go further into this season of new vision, new models and seeing.

The service on Sunday morning was electric and filled with power! You will want to watch the webcast replay with the spiritual warfare and declarations regarding rain! You will also want to listen to Robert Heidler's message on Apostolic Hubs: From Iona to Corinth, Texas! This was probably his best message yet in this series. Click HERE to watch this webcast that is available through tomorrow evening.

We all danced the thunder dance and made spiritual decrees. Click HERE to watch this video and join us in saying no to hell! Yesterday afternoon, unexpected clouds came into the sky here and rain began to fall minimally through the Metroplex region. I want to encourage you to dance the thunder dance for the next seven days and ask God for the "rain of His blessings" to come upon you. I got up this morning and did that for Oklahoma.

The Lord also told us not to murmur or complain. Murmuring and complaining stop healing and create an atmosphere in the earth realm that resists spiritual blessing (read Isaiah 58). Over the next 7 days, dance and bless with your mouth!

Blessings,

Chuck D. Pierce
