

There is a Shield in the Unexpected Release of Warfare Around You!
An Update from Daniel and Amber Pierce

Monday, September 10, 2012

Dear Friends of Israel:

As we shared during yesterday's service, Daniel and Amber were awakened early Sunday morning to the sound of sirens and rockets. In a time of great anxiety, it is vital to know that you are at the right place at the right time. If you are able to remain in your abiding place (Psalm 91), the Lord not only provides His peace, but releases His heart and mind on how to pray for others around you. Please read Daniel and Amber's report to see how you can continue to be praying for the people in Israel and surrounding nations. Read Psalm 144 and declare He is your shield and the One in whom you take refuge.

We must also remember to pray for Jerusalem. In Psalm 122:6 we are specifically called to pray for the peace of Jerusalem. I know that many of us are familiar with the Day of Prayer for the Peace of Jerusalem. This year it will be on Sunday, October 7. I believe it is key that we join together on one day to focus our prayers for the wholeness of Jerusalem. This morning at 2am we were awakened by the sound of sirens, explosions, and rockets. It's been a few months since the Palestinians have fired rockets into Be'er Sheva. They have consistently been firing into Kibbutz (small villages) around the military border of Gaza. Firing into Be'er Sheva is a higher level of war because this is a major city and the rockets that must be used to reach Be'er Sheva are 9 feet long and carry 60 pounds of explosives. These weapons have to travel 30 miles through the air to land here. School has been cancelled today which can only mean that more fighting is expected. Seven people have been injured so please pray for them. My heart also breaks for the innocent who are in Gaza - women and children there who just want to survive.

I hate all of this fighting because war affects the innocent. I also think of all of those innocent people in Syria who are being tortured and killed. Remember there are also believers (Christians) in these areas and they have no way to escape. I know that Gaza as a territory is an enemy to the nation of Israel and would love to see Israel destroyed, but my heart still goes out to the innocent there. There is no choice though - we have to fight back. I'm sure all of these things really grieve God's heart. He says that blessed be those who bless Israel and cursed be those who curse Israel. But He also created every person in these war torn areas, and I know He loves them also and hates to see them hurting. So, peace be still!

This morning the Lord directed me to Psalm 46:4: "There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God the holy place where the most High dwells. God is within her, she will not fall; God will help her at break of day." As we were trying to fall back to sleep after the blast we played James Vincent's song "Lead Me to the Waters" on repeat until we fell back to sleep. What an amazing song and CD.

Blessings and love,

Daniel, Amber and Lily Pierce
