Dear New Year Celebrants:

Yesterday evening at sundown we officially began the new Hebrew Year. Today is the first day of the year of Ayin Bet (5772) and is marked by the blowing of shofars and trumpets. I hope many of you will be able to join the Receiving Power to Build and Advance gathering at 7 PM. Allen Faubion will be sharing on "People of the Voice" and leading us in releasing a new sound for a new year (more details below).

Be sure to stay abreast of the 100 Days of Breakthrough! You can follow this daily on our Facebook page. To subscribe to the Fanpage you can go to [Recent Communications on the Glory of Zion Home Page (www.gloryofzion.org) and click on "Chuck Pierce on Facebook". Feast of Trumpets!

Many of you who joined us for our Head of the Year Celebration last week heard from Norma and Martin Sarvis. We are so grateful for the weekly updates they provide from Israel. Below is the update they sent out yesterday to help us better understand the Feast of Trumpets and the season we have just entered. If you do not already receive our Prayer Updates from Israel, please visit our website and select the blue "Member Services" box. This will then provide you the option to subscribe to the Israel Prayerlist directly.

THURSDAY [BEGINNING SUNDOWN WEDNESDAY] IS THE FEAST OF TRUMPETS AND THE "HEAD" OF THE HEBREW YEAR 5772.

"Speak to the children of Israel, saying: 'In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall have a sabbath, a memorial of blowing [of shofars--rams' horns], a holy convocation. You shall do no customary work; and you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD'" (Leviticus 23:23-25; see also Numbers 29:1-6).

This Thursday (today) marks the beginning of the Biblical Fall Feasts—Yom T'ruah, the Day of Blowing (of shofars)—the Feast of Trumpets. It has also come to be known as Rosh Hashanah, the “Head of the [civil] Year”. Although Hebrew months are numbered beginning in the Spring (Exodus 12:2), the numbering for the Hebrew year changes on the first of the seventh month, Yom T'ruah [According to Hebrew tradition, the world was created on this day]. This week we enter the Hebrew year 5772.

Of first importance, it is to be a day of t'ruah as a memorial (see Scripture above). T'ruah means a shout, a cry, an alarm, a blast or series of blasts on the shofar (ram's horn). Psalm 33:3 says that musicians are to make t'ruah skillfully on their instruments together with singers singing a new song! Suffice to say that it is a day on which a ‘sound’ is to go up memorializing the greatness and faithfulness of YHVH, the LORD!

 The sound of the shofar also speaks of the Source of our redemption. It was through a ram caught in a thicket by its horn (from whence is made a shofar) that God “provided the lamb” to take the place of Isaac on Mount Moriah (Genesis 22:13-14). We believe that it is this relation to the “Lamb of God who carries away the sin of the world”, who “defeated Death”, who came to “undo the works of the Evil One,” which gives the shofar its special authoritative power when blown in the timing and under the anointing of the Holy Spirit! The sound can be an alarm, a call to battle, a sound of victory, rejoicing and celebration. There were shofar blasts from heaven as the YHVH descended upon Mount Sinai to meet with Moses and deliver instruction regarding His Law, and how His people could draw near to Him (Exodus 19:16, 19). 1 Corinthians 15:52 (Hebrew translation) speaks of one Final Shofar when the dead in Messiah will be raised and those remaining changed in the twinkling of an eye.

It is a joyous holiday in Israel, beginning this year at sundown September 28th, a family-and-friends time of wine and feasting, of giving gifts, of sounding the shofar, of eating apples dipped in honey and wishing each other “Shana Tova” – a good year!

However, with the joy there is to be a certain sobriety—it is to be a sabbath for taking account, for becoming awake and alert, a day of remembrance but also for looking forward to the Day of Atonement nine days later. As such, it is sometimes referred to as Yom HaDin—the Day of Judgment. These ten days are considered “Days of Awe”. We take account of our sins. Many devout Jews partake of an ancient custom called Tashlikh—the “casting” or “throwing”. They go to a body of water and empty their pockets or throw stones into the water, repeating the final three verses from the prophet Micah, “Who is a God like You, pardoning iniquity and passing over the transgression of the remnant of His heritage? He does not retain His anger forever, because He delights in lovingkindness. He will again have compassion on us, and will subdue our iniquities. You will cast all our sins into the depths of the sea. You will give truth to Jacob and lovingkindness to Abraham, which You have sworn to our fathers from days of old.”

PLEASE PRAY: For revelation to Jews during this holy season by the Spirit who was sent to convict of sin and righteousness and judgment—revelation of the One in whom “truth and lovingkindness” were realized (John 1:17)—in whose work God pardons our iniquity and passes over our transgression!

Thursday also begins the seventh Hebrew month—Tishri. In earlier times, the name Ethanim was used (1 Kings 8:2). Ethanim is related to the word Ethan, which has to do with steadiness, as an “unwavering flame” or “a steady flow”. Brown-Driver-Briggs (P 250 #388) interprets it in this context as “a month of steady flow”. There are presently many forces, both outside of and within Christendom which are working to fragment the Body of Messiah regarding its God-ordained call to bless and stand with Israel and to pray for the Peace of Jerusalem.

PLEASE PRAY: that in this month of new beginnings the Lord bring our streams into a steady flow of constancy. That He focus the prayers of His watchmen and watchwomen into a steady truthful flame, until Jerusalem’s righteousness ignites and “goes forth as brightness, and her salvation as a torch which burns” (Isaiah 62:1).

Key Resources to Help you Move Forward with Joy and Celebration!

Sound the Shofar - by Allen Faubion

From the earliest of times God chose the ram's horn or "shofar" as one of His instruments to release this sound. Awesome things take place when the shofar sounds according to the command of the Lord God Almighty. Walls fall down (Jericho), enemies are destroyed (Gideon), the presence of God manifests (Sinai), and God's people enter into the covenant cycle of blessing God has prepared for us (Feasts). On this CD, Allen Faubion both shares on and demonstrates the power and anointing of sounding the shofar according to the command of the Lord. Sound the Shofar!

Sound the Feasts!

God has appointed His feasts as a time for us to meet with Him so that we move into an ever increasing cycle of freedom and fruitfulness. He has also designed the instruments so that they release the anointing of each feast through their sound. Sound the Feasts is an interactive CD that will help you flow in the anointing of the feasts throughout the year. Each part of the feast cycle is explained before the sound of the feast is released. Each explanation includes a series of decrees for the listener to release during the musical portion. As you interact with Sound the Feasts you will experience the blood of Jesus (Passover), the Spirit (Pentecost), and the presence of God (the Fall Feasts) like never before. Sound creates movement. Each Feast is linked with prosperity. May this CD lead you into the sound that will unlock your harvest!
