

SUNDAY A.M. - Special Firstfruits Service!
No Services or Activities this Friday or Saturday!

Thursday, December 5, 2013

Dear Celebrating Saints:

Praise God for the seasons! With the winter storm season that is moving into our region, we will be adjusting this weekend's schedule of activities. However, here is the most incredible Beulah Acres Blog from our Gardens for the end of Hanukkah and the Festival of Lights. Please enjoy this, and we hope you can come and visit when the weather is better. Click HERE for your three minute Garden Tour of the Lights! The Gardens will remain lit until January 5, so you are welcome to come any time with friends and family over the next month. We will also be hosting several special activities in the Gardens later this month.

Special Firstfruits Service Sunday A.M.!

We are so excited about having our Firstfruits Service this Sunday morning. We have never celebrated Firstfruits on a Sunday morning, so this will be a unique time to pull together your house church or friends to join in by webcast. Or if you are in the region, we look forward to seeing you on Sunday morning at 9 AM.

Women's Christmas Brunch Rescheduled for Saturday, December 14!

We will be moving our Women's Christmas Brunch from this Saturday to next Saturday (December 14). Fortunately, Barbara Wentroble will be available to minister next Saturday morning, as well as next Sunday (December 15) at our Sunday Morning Celebration Service.

The Lord is really speaking to me. I just came from the National Heartland Apostolic Prayer Network (HAPN) meeting in Oklahoma City, and am gaining revelation for the move of God this season. I look forward to sharing this, and hope many of you can join us at Come to the Banqueting Table: Starting the Year Off Right! on January 2-5, 2014.

Blessings,
Chuck D. Pierce
